JUDGMENT

M.M.KUMAR, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that in view of the objection taken in the written statement the succession certificate is essential requirement and has to be furnished by the petitioner duly issued by a competent Court for release of pension, gratuity and other benefits, he wishes to withdraw the petition. Learned counsel further states that the petitioner shall also submit a copy of the death certificate of his mother as pointed out by the respondents in their written statement.

In view of the above, we disposed of the writ petition and allow the petitioner to submit all the relevant papers to the respondents for claiming retiral benefits of his deceased father.

The writ petition stands disposed of in above terms.
